Hope all is well at VG. Seems like LNG sales activity has been going great.

I am in the process of exercising my options and finding investor(s) to purchase the stock from me.

What is the process for that? Assume VG doesn't want to use its cash to buy back stock. Can you confirm.

I am estimating a sales price of $19,000 to $21,000 based on my best estimate of valuation to date.

Regards - Mike
